Assembly of First Nations (AFN)

First Nations Housing and Related Infrastructure Strategy (FNHRIS)

Engagement Sessions

January 12, 2027, to March 24, 2027 • Hybrid

The Assembly of First Nations (AFN) is hosting four (4) thematic engagement sessions to support the renewal and alignment of the FNHRIS. These engagements will focus on refining the Strategy through thematic discussions with specific subject matter experts, ensuring it reflects appropriate structure, priorities and implementation considerations. Each session will feature discussions tailored to a specific theme to strengthen the First Nations housing policy landscape.

Who Should Attend?

- First Nations Housing Technicians/Managers
- First Nations Housing Policy Experts
- Subject Matter Experts/Academics
- First Nations Organizations & Partners
- Tribal Councils

Engagement Sessions Schedule

Sessions will occur over two (2) days and take place from 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM

January 12-13, 2027

Location: Victoria, BC
Theme: Governance, Operations, Institutions and Partnerships

February 9-10, 2027

Location: Toronto, ON
Theme: Funding, Fiscal Reform, Financing and Investments

March 2-3, 2027

Location: Calgary, AB
Theme: People, Capacity, Data and Knowledge

March 23-24, 2027

Location: Halifax, NS
Theme: Housing Supply, Design, Land and Infrastructure

There will be four (4) engagement sessions beginning on January 12, 2027, and concluding on March 24, 2027.

In-person attendance will be by invitation only. Virtual participation is open to all.

To register, please visit [insert registration link].
For additional information or assistance, please contact awhiteduck@afn.ca