November 26, 2026
(11am – 3pm ET)

These virtual dialogue sessions will bring together First Nations persons with disabilities, Knowledge Keepers, leadership, administrators, caregivers, youth, service providers, and others, to share their unique insights and experiences on accessibility in the First Nation context. The discussions will inform a First Nations-led approach to advancing accessibility.

Accessibility accommodations will be available.

Registration details and additional information will be available soon on the AFN website at www.afn.ca.
