Indigenous Institutes Act, 2017

S.O. 2017, CHAPTER 34 SCHEDULE 20

No amendments.

Preamble

The Government of Ontario affirms that it is committed to reconciliation with Indigenous peoples.

The Government of Ontario acknowledges that the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples recognizes the right of Indigenous peoples to establish and control their educational systems and institutions providing education in their own languages, in a manner appropriate to their cultural methods of teaching and learning.

In Ontario, Indigenous Institutes are Indigenous governed and operated community-based education institutions that are mandated by and accountable to Indigenous communities.

Indigenous Institutes primarily provide accessible post-secondary education and training, and pathways to further learning primarily to Indigenous students in a culturally safe environment.

Indigenous Institutes provide education framed by Indigenous knowledge and languages, worldviews and Indigenous ways of knowing and living, and represent one pathway among others for Indigenous communities and students to achieve their educational visions and goals.

Recognizing that Indigenous Institutes play a unique role in the post-secondary education system of Ontario, the Government of Ontario and Indigenous Institutes have come together, in the spirit of reconciliation, mutual respect and mutual accountability, to enhance educational opportunities for Indigenous students, and to promote the revitalization of Indigenous knowledge, cultures and languages.

Intense Professional Delivery

fnti.net FNTI utilizes an intensive delivery schedule to deliver our academic programming.* As a student, you can expect to move through a fourweek delivery schedule, taking 1-2 full-time post-secondary courses every four-week period. During the first three weeks of each cycle, students will be engaged in mandatory learning activities; the fourth week is an administration week without student instruction.

Foundations Week (Week 1)

During the Foundations Week, students are assigned a variety of activities, most notably readings, recordings and self-assessments, to prepare them for the following Live Instruction Week. Many courses will include a graded assessment before moving into the Live Instruction Week. The work assigned during the Foundations Week is mandatory to ensure that students are prepared for the vocational learning outcomes and Indigenous learning outcomes associated with the Live Instruction Week. During the Foundations Week, students can complete the work on their own schedule, at times convenient to them.

Live Instruction Week (Week 2)

Over the course of the Live Instruction Week, students are engaged in scheduled learning activities for full days. Students can expect to receive a class schedule, between 9 a.m. - 4 p.m., during which time they can anticipate being engaged in live (synchronous) classes. During this time, faculty members, cultural advisors and student success facilitators will provide live instruction and support to learners. Students may also be assigned mandatory graded team work, peer evaluations and self-guided exercises during this time frame.

Consolidation Week (Week 3)

On their own time, students will complete items assigned during the Live Instruction Week to represent a culmination of their learning understanding from the Foundations and Live Instruction weeks. Learners must meet deadlines set by faculty, but work can be carried out at times that are convenient to the student.

Administrative Week (Week 4)

Course grading is finalized by faculty to confirm that the student has met all course learning outcomes and Indigenous learning outcomes, and final grades are remitted to the registrar's office.
