Fire and Life Safety Application First Nations Youth Voice Acting Contest

Call for Submissions

About the Contest

The Assembly of First Nations (AFN) is casting youth voice talent for characters in the Fire and Life Safety App, an interactive game promoting fire and life safety in First Nations communities.

About the Fire and Life Safety App

The Fire and Life Safety App is an interactive educational tool developed for First Nations youth. Through storytelling, games, and real-life scenarios, the app teaches key lessons about fire prevention, emergency preparedness, and community safety. The app is being developed with First Nations voices, perspectives, and characters to ensure cultural relevance and meaningful engagement. Available in both English and French, it aims to promote awareness while empowering youth to protect themselves and their communities.
