

Assembly of First Nations (AFN)

National Justice Forum on Reform of Justice Systems

Montreal, QC (Hybrid) | May 28-29, 2025 | 9:00am-5:00pm ET

SOCIAL MEDIA POST TO LAW STUDENTS

The Assembly of First Nations (AFN) will be hosting a National Justice Forum on Reform of Justice Systems, on May 28-29, 2025, in Montreal, QC. This forum aims to provide First Nations an opportunity to discuss the reform of justice systems that will inform the implementation of the First Nations component of the Indigenous Justice Strategy. The forum will showcase community justice programs, Gladue programs, wrap-around supports, and healing lodges that are leading the way in reforming the justice system.

The AFN is inviting law students attending law schools in Canada who are interested in attending the forum in-person, to submit a one-page statement indicating why you are interested in the topic of the forum, Reform of Justice Systems, along with a resume for consideration. Please send submissions to the AFN Justice Sector, via email to cboomhour@afn.ca, by no later than Friday, March 14, 2025. The registration fee, travel and accommodations will be covered for up to 10 law students. Those selected will be asked to provide a brief reflections paper after the event.