

SAVE THE DATE

The 3rd AFN Indigenous Laws Gathering

Legal Pluralism: Braiding Distinct Legal Traditions and Sources of Power

June 3-4, 2025 | Casino Rama Resort, Rama, ON

Join us for a hybrid (in-person and virtual) gathering to discuss the recognition of Indigenous laws and legal orders. Participants will engage in facilitated discussions, learn from First Nations Knowledge Keepers and thought leaders, and contribute to ongoing efforts to hold space and elevate Indigenous laws.

Who Should Attend:

- Knowledge Keepers and Experts in Indigenous Laws
- First Nations Claims Technicians
- First Nations Chiefs and Council Members
- First Nations Land Experts and Policymakers
- Government of Canada representatives

Under the theme, "Legal Pluralism: Braiding Distinct Legal Traditions and Sources of Power," this year's Gathering focuses on bringing First Nations together to share knowledge and support one another in developing strategies and initiatives to revitalize their laws and legal orders.

For questions, please contact Jesse Donovan, Acting Director of the AFN Lands Sector, at jdonovan@afn.ca

Space is limited. Register Now!

