Corporate Sponsorship Opportunities

Come and join us in Vancouver as part of this important Forum!

The Assembly of First Nations (AFN) will host a National Forum on the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Act (UNDA) on February 4-5, 2025, in Vancouver, British Columbia, on the unceded and ancestral territories of the xʷməθkʷəy'əmə (Musqueam), Sk̓wx̓wú7mesh (Squamish), and səliłwətał (Tsleil-Waututh) Nations. The National Forum will feature plenary sessions and facilitated discussions focused on the implementation of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and will discuss best practices and strategic approaches to advancing First Nations' rights.

Forum topics may include:

- Implementation of the UN Declaration, covering Canada's Action Plan, British Columbia's DRIPA legislation, and the UNDA's impact
- Free, Prior, and Informed Consent (FPIC)
- First Nations human rights in domestic and international fora
- Inherent rights, including self-government, self-determination, and sovereignty
- Obligations surrounding the duty to consult and accommodate
- Engagement expectations for First Nations leaders, communities, and government partners

The AFN expects 400 attendees at the Forum, including First Nations Chiefs and Councilors, representatives from First Nations organizations and technicians and governmental and non-governmental representatives.

If you are interested in being a corporate sponsor for the AFN's National Forum UNDA, please send an email outlining your interest to governance@afn.ca.
