

Save the Date

Assembly of First Nations (AFN) Environment Sector Webinar Series Online via Zoom

The Assembly of First Nations (AFN) Environment Sector is hosting a webinar series from November 7, 2024, to March 28, 2025 to share information and updates on AFN's environmental policy issues and activities with First Nations peoples and organizations and collect feedback to inform AFN's recommendations. Each facilitated session will include presentations from AFN staff, government representatives and other partners. All sessions will have French translation available.

Who Should Attend?

- First Nation Leadership
- Technicians appointed by First Nations Leadership
- First Nations
- Conservation practitioners
- AFN partners, environmental organizations, human rights organizations, and NGOs

This is an online series hosted via Zoom.

- Thursday, November 7, 2024, 1-3 pm EST – “Environmental Justice (EJ)”
- Thursday, November 21, 2024, 1-3 pm EST – “Right to a Healthy Environment (RTHE)”
- Friday, January 31, 2025, 1-3 pm EST – “The Convention on Biological Diversity (CBD) and the Conference of the Parties (COP)”
- Friday, February 14, 2025, 1-3 pm EST – “Outcomes of the 3rd National Climate Gathering (NCG)”
- Wednesday, March 19, 2025, 1-3 pm EST – “National Biodiversity Strategy and Action Plan (NBSAP) & Nature Accountability Act (NAA)”
- Friday, March 21, 2025, 1-3 pm EST – “Species at Risk Act, Section 11 and 12 – First Nations opportunities”
- Friday, March 28, 2025, 1-3 pm EST – “Legislative Tools for First Nations to Address Chronic Wasting Disease”

Space is limited! To register, please visit <https://afn.ca/events/environment-sector-webinar-series/>
For additional information or assistance, please contact the AFN at mllalonde@afn.ca.