CALL FOR PRESENTERS

The Assembly of First Nations (AFN) is pleased to announce the call for presentations for the AFN Education Forum – “Reigniting the Flames of our Ancestors,” on February 19-20, 2025, at the Westin Harbour Castle, in Toronto, Ontario, is now open!

The AFN Education Forum will bring together leaders in First Nations education to discuss best practices, challenges, successes, and priorities. The forum will have subthemes of unique practices in First Nations education, the continuum of lifelong learning and how to support learners at all stages, and First Nations control of First Nations education.

The AFN is inviting dynamic speakers, presenters, and facilitators to submit a proposal to host a session at the forum to provide breakout sessions on wholistic education topics such as:

- Advancing First Nations control of First Nations education
- Supporting First Nations languages in the classroom, Immersion Education
- Unique initiatives in First Nations education
- Supporting Learners at all stages of life (including Adult Education and Post-Secondary Education)
- On-the-land learning
- Incorporating traditional knowledge into curricula

The deadline to submit an application is December 6, 2024. Please ensure that your application includes valid contact information, the title of your presentation, along with a detailed description of your presentation, and a short biography about yourself.

All presentation timeslots are 60 minutes in length.

[HYPERLINK TBC]

Only successful applicants will be contacted. All breakout session presenters must pay for their travel to and from the forum. The successful applicants will have their forum registration fees waived. The AFN will not provide any monetary compensation.

We look forward to hearing from you!

Wela'lin, Miigwech, Kleco! Kleco!, Nia'wen, Masi cho, Merci, Thank you!
