This forum will feature plenary sessions, interactive dialogues, and workshops aimed at promoting wholistic and culturally informed policy approaches. The forum seeks to enhance collaboration among leaders, policymakers, and practitioners in the fields of First Nations mental wellness and homelessness.

Key objectives of the forum include:

- Engaging in discussions on the AFN National First Nations Homelessness Action Plan and the First Nations Mental Wellness Continuum Framework.
- Advocating for integrated, culturally relevant strategies that place mental wellness at the core of homelessness initiatives.
- Driving regional and national initiatives forward, highlighting best practices and challenges in addressing First Nations homelessness and mental wellness.

If you are interested in being a corporate sponsor for the AFN's Homelessness and Mental Wellness Forum, please send an email outlining your interest to housing.homelessness@afn.ca.
